PARENTS FEEDBACK

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the V.S.S.D. College, Kanpur, received the parents' feedback on the curriculum and other facilities provided. For holistic Development of the Student, parents are asked about the overall growth and personality development of their ward, the balance between academics, co-curricular, and sports activities, and the development of soft skills, awareness about social, cultural, and ethical issues. More than 215 parents gave their valuable feedback.

- Under parent feedback, 89.8 percent of parents agreed that their children regularly attended college.
- 96.3 percent of parents were satisfied with the academic environment of the college, while 3.7 percent felt that improvements were needed.
- 93.1 percent of parents were satisfied with the basic facilities available in the college, while 6.9 percent felt that an improvement was needed.
- 89.8 percent of parents were satisfied with the library facilities of the college, while 10.2 percent felt that improvements were needed.
- 75.9 percent of parents reported that their children participated in extracurricular activities conducted at the college, while 24.1 percent were not active.
