Student Satisfaction Survey (SSS – Session 2024–25)

A survey was conducted among the students of VSSD College regarding their experience with teaching, learning, sports, library, infrastructure, and hostel facilities. About 900 students provided their valuable feedback.

More than 77% of the students agreed that the admission procedure is easy or very easy. Over 79.1% of students agreed that 90% to 100% of the syllabus was covered in classrooms. 88% of the students agreed that the teachers take their classes regularly. 70% of students agreed that the classrooms and furniture are adequate, clean, and well maintained.

According to 77% of the students, the quality of reference books available in the central/departmental library is very good. 94% of students stated that teachers help them in getting relevant reference/textbooks (reading material). 87% of students agreed that the teacher–student relationship in the college as well as in the department is very good.

89% of students also agreed that the internal assessment process is either very good or good. 90% of students agreed that the administrative support system is very helpful. More than 77% of students were agreed that the sports facilities of the college are very good.

70% of students feel that the hostel facilities are very good. The survey shows that more than 84% of students participate in extracurricular activities of the Department/College. In the view of 81% of students, the drinking water facilities provided by the college are very good or good.

More than 67% of students rated the washroom facilities in the college premises as clean, sufficient, and well-ventilated. More than 36% of students agreed that they feel superior, while 50% feel equal when they meet students of similar programs from other colleges.
