PREAMBLE

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is entered into by English Language Teachers' Association of India hereafter 'ELTAI, and between Vikramajit Singh Sanatan Dharma College(VSSD) are referred to collectively, as "Parties" or individually as "Party."

It is essential to prepare our youth by the expectations of the futurists who look for the Twenty First Century Skills. Youth need to achieve a reasonable degree of competence in creative thinking, critical thinking, design thinking, emotional and social intelligences and other related cognitive skills which can be developed through reading.

Aims:

- To cultivate the habit of reading among our learners for joy and of their own volition.
- To motivate them to become autonomous readers, leading to lifelong learning.
- To co-operate in Joint research programmes in areas of mutual interest.

To encourage collaboration and cooperation of projects related to reading from the user communities associated with each Party.

Roles and Responsibilities

The purpose of this MoU is to define the roles and responsibilities for driving the ELTAI Reading Club in which the Parties desire to work together to inculcate reading skills amongst the learners.

ELTAI

- 6.1 To provide 100 modules on different genres and reading strategies.
- 6.2 To train 03 Mentors identified by the institution biannually either in-person or online.
- 6.3 LMS and an exclusive website to share the materials and record events of the different institutions.
- 6.4 To create a reading profile of each student by tracking their progress from the beginning and enable them to become effective readers. (to be part of the portfolio)
- 6.5 Ultimately, to enable the host to become a reading institution when the culture of reading is on the decline. And, the institution to sustain it in the years to come.

VSSD College, Kanpur

- 6.6 To identify 03 mentors to be in constant touch with the ELTAI team dedicated to implementing the movement.
